GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1876-'77.

SENATE.

SIXTEENTH DAY.

FRIDAY, Dec. 6. 1876.

The Senate was called to order at 11 A. M., Mr. President Robinson in the chair.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved

Leave of absence was asked and granted, for Senators Scales, Justice, Holt, and Heilig until after the recess.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Senator Scales, from the Committee on Corporations; Senator Dortch, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances; Senator Crawford, from the Committee on Priviledges and Elections; Senator Moore, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills; Senator Stewart, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, submitted reports. Senator Robins submitted a minority report to the report of the Judiciary Committee concerning the repeal of the House Bill 422, laws of 1874:75. Placed on the calendar and ordered printed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

A message was received from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate of the passage of House bills 72, 121. 80 and 29, and House resolutions 46 and 48. These were placed upon the calendar or referred to appropriate committees.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Senator Askew: To repeal chapter 151, laws of 1874-'75. Judiciary.

By Senator Dortch: To secure the better protection of human life. Judiciary.

By Senator Mebane, col., of Bertie: An act concerning the paupers of the State. Calendar.

By Senator Scales: Resolution instructing the Superintendent to furnish an itemized statement of expenses of the insane asylum, between this time and the 30th of December.

Upon motion of Senator Scales the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

By Senator Liles: A resolution proposing that both houses adjourn to-morrow at 10 A. M., until 10 A. M., of the 30th. Calendar.

Upon motion of Senator Scales, the rules were suspended and the Senate took up Senate bill No. 90, authorizing sheriffs or tax collectors who were in office in 1873, and have been since, to collect arrears of taxes for 1873-'74 and '75, their authority to collect such taxes to expire on the 30th of December, 1877. Substitute was proposed by the Judiciary Committee, which makes the provisions of the bill as above stated.

Senator Wilson supported the substitute, and it was adopted.

The question recurred upon the passage of the bill on its third reading, and it passed, ayes 24, noes 13.

Bill to amend section 2, chapter 18, Battie's Revisal. A substitute was proposed by the committee and adopted, and the bill passed its second reading.

An amendment was offered by Senator Saudifer, which failed.

The question then recurred upon the bill on its third reading, and it passed, ayes 34, noes 1.

[Under the law as it stood, there was a period of two weeks during the terms of Superior Courts, during which no civil action could be legally instituted. This act restores in effect the provisions of the revised code, and removes the difficulty now existing and pointed out by the Supreme Court.]

By Senator Troy: A resolution to amend the standing rules so that the judiciary and county government committees be increased to such number as the President may see proper. Calendar.

Bill to amend section 349, chapter 11, title 14, code of civil procedure, regarding the publication of notice of service in civil actions, came up from the calendar, and passed its several readings.

Bill to amend chapter 195, laws of 1874-'75, for the protection of birds in the counties of Davidson, Davie, Randolph, Anson and other counties.

Upon motion of Senator Liles, the bill was referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Resolution instructing the board of assessors of rail road property to return the valuation of 3½ miles of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad lying in the county of Jones.

Upon motion of Senator Graham the bill was laid on the table.

Under the resolution of Mr. Finger, the chair announced the following committee on the State debt: Senators Finger, Holt, Roberts Green, Graham, Troy and Johnston.

Under a suspension of the rules the resolution of Senator Troy to amend the standing rules in order that the president may increase the committees on judiciary and county government, was taken up and adopted.

The resolution to appoint a committee of three on the part of the Senate and four on the part of the House to visit and investigate the affairs of the Western Insane Asylum.

After a good deal of debate, Senator Troy moved that the committee to investigate the Western North Carolina Railrod be instructed to investigate also the Western Insane Asylum.

The amendment was adopted, and the resolution passed its several readings.

Bill to be entitled an act to make Cape Fear River a lawful fence for its entire length, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Bill to be entitled an act to protect paupers. [Provides that no pauper shall be hired out at public auction by county commissioners, or any white or colored paupers hired privately to a person of the opposite color, except by the written consent of the pauper.]

After amendments by Senator Graham and Askew, the bill was referred to the judiciary committee.

Bill to prevent the sale of liquor within three miles of Shocco Chapel and People's Hall, Warren county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

Bill to incorporate Kinston Collegiate Institute, after being amended, passed its several readings.

Upon motion of Senator Troy the vote by which the bill to prohibit the sale or giving away of liquor within three miles of Shocco Chapel or the People's Hall, in Warren county, was reconsidered.

Senator Troy moved to strike out the words, "or in any manner give away."

Senator Stewart moved to re-commit; and the bill with its amendments was re-committed to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

The Senate then adjourned until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at 11 a. m. by Mr. Speaker Price.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Shackelford, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills; Mr. McBrayer, from the Committee on Judiciary; Mr. King, from the same committee; Mr. Kenan, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances; Mr. Gudger, from the same committee; Mr Staples, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted reports.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

By Mr. Henderson: A bill to allow mechanics 60 days in which to fill liens. Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr Wilson, of New Hanover: A bill to provide an asylum for the insane colored people of the State. Calendar.

By Mr. Pinnix: A bill in relation to the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal. Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. Spake: A bill to allow the citizens of Jackson county to pass the toll gates of Swain county free of charge. Calendar.

By Mr. Hartsell: A bill to amend section 41, chapter 104, Battle's Revisal. Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. McClure: A bill to regulate the pay of sheriffs for making election returns, and for other purposes. Committee on Finance.

By Mr. Simpson: A bill for the relief of the late sheriff of Polk county. Calendar.

On motion of Mr. McIver, the rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the town of Cameron, was taken up, passed its third reading by a vote of yeas 101; nays, 0, and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

Mr Staples, from the select committee in regard to the resolutions of protest against military interference in South Carolina, submitted a report.

Mr. Parish, the introducer of the resolutions, favored a favorable report upon them.

Messrs. Staples and Pinnix submitted a substitute therefor, while the two Republican members of the committee, Messrs Bagley and Purnell, did not endorse either the original proposition or the proposed substitute.

The substitute is of the same sentiment of the original resolutions, and only differs therefrom in point of immaterial verbage.

The report was placed on the calendar.

CALENDAR.

The bill for the general relief of sheriffs and tax collectors, was taken up.

[The bill allows all those who have been sheriffs and tax collectors for the years 1873-'74-'75 '76, to collect arrears of taxes. The provisions of the proposed act do not extend to sheriffs and tax collectors who have not settled with the proper officers for the public and county taxes.]

An amendment, offered by Mr. Cooper, that the benefits of the proposed act shall not extend to such sheriffs and tax collectors who have not settled for public and county taxes at the time they attempt to collect such arrearages was adopted.

Mr. King moved to amend so as to include the year 1872. Adopted.

The bill passed its third reading and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Rose, the rules were suspended, and the report of the committee on the resolutions of protest against federal and military interference in South Carolina was taken up.

The question recurred upon the substitute recommended by Messrs. Staples and Pinnix

Mr. Clarke, of Craven, moved to postpone the whole matter until Jan. 10. Lost.

The question recurred upon the adoption of the substitute.

Mr Bledsoe moved to lay it on the table and on that motion called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained, and the vote being taken the motion to table was rejected. Yeas 32, nays 76, a party vote.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, hoped the motion would be overwhelmingly voted down. He recognized the wisdom of moderation and prudence in this juncture of affairs. But silence in the face of such villainous outrages would be a great public crime. Mr. Carter proceeded to sketch and severely denounce the crimes perpetrated by the present federal administration against the liberty gauranteed in the constitution. He was glad that this matter had come up. It was due to the dignity and rights of the people of the State of North Carolina that their representatives, here assembled, should enter a protest against this unpardonable outrage upon the free people of a great sister State, &c.

Mr. Bagley, the Republican leader upon the floor, favored the motion to indefinitely postpone, and entered into a sort of semi quasi defence of the action of the administration.—He prefaced his remarks by saying that there was no freedom south of the Potomac.

Mr. Staples said that the reason that there was no freedom south of the Potomac was because white and freeborn men defended the action of an usurping and tyrannical President and were willing to see their fellow-citizens ground down beneath the heel of military despotism. He moved the reference of the matter to a select committee and called the previous question.

Mr. Parish, the introducer of the original resolutions, said that now when these appalling outrages were occurring was the proper time to make the protest which his resolutions indicated. He did not care to make any extended remarks on the subject. He thought the matter should address itself to the favorable consideration of every patriot, &c.

On the call for the previous question the yeas and nays were demanded and had, and the call was sustained by a vote of yeas 77; nays 23. The question recurred upon the motion to indefinitely postpone.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion to indefinitely postpone was rejected by a vote of yeas 74; nays 33. The question then recurred upon the motion of Mr. Staples to refer to a select committee consisting of Messrs. Parish, Swaim, Cobb, Clarke, of Craven, and Johnston, of Washington.

On the demand of Mr. Bledsoe, the yeas and nays were called, and the reference was rejected by a vote of yeas 34; nays 77. The question recurred upon the adoption of the substituted.

On the demand of Mr. Bledsoe, the yeas and nays were called, and the substitute was rejected by a vote of yeas 40 nays 59. The question recurred on the passage of the original resolutions, introduced by Mr. Parish, and published in full a few days ago.

On the demand of Mr. Bledsoe, the yeas and nays were called and they were adopted by a vote of yeas 52; nays 47

By consent Mr. McLean introduced a resolution appropriating a sum of $300 for the proper observance of the inauguration of this incoming Governor. Referred to the select committee on inauguration.

On motion the House adjourned until to morrow at 10 a. m.

Thanksgiving at the Church of the Good Shepherd.

A correspondent writes as follows to the Norfolk Virginian, concerning the observance of Thanksgiving day in the Church of the Good Shepherd of this city. The communication appeared in the Virginian of the 6th instant, and as it will interest our city readers we make place for it:

Publisher Virginian:—The services in the Church of the Good Shepherd in this city on Thanksgiving day were most beautiful and appropriate, and there was a novelty in the decorations of the chancel that it is to be hoped will be copied next year by many other churches.

In the centre of the steps was a pyramid about four feet high, composed of pumpkins, potatoes, carrots and parsnips, covered with a wreath of parsley; smaller pyramids of the same vegetables were on either side, while apples and oranges were piled on the altar and in the font, interspersed with green, and bright colored autumn leaves. Festoons of carrots, and parsnips, and turnips with their green tops, were wreathed around the pulpit and reading desk, and the chancel rail was decked with wheat and oats to represent standing sheaves, the bases of which were surrounded with well-filled bolls of cotton. The motto over the altar was:

"THE EARTH IS THE LORD'S AND THE FULLNESS THEREOF."

the letters of which were formed of grains of rice on a dark green ground. After the services all these good things were distributed among the poor of the parish. Mr. Rich, the rector of this church, has built it entirely by contributions from his congregation and others interested in the experiment of a free church. No pews are either sold or rented, and the stranger is made at home as soon as he enters its doors. It is supported entirely by voluntary contributions and is prosperous and increasing rapidly.

More Sheriffs.

The sheriffs who are delinquent in the settlement of their taxes are coming forward rapidly, and the last one is expected every day. Five settled yesterday, as follows: Sheriff Snead, of Granville, who paid $11,686.10; Sheriff Davis, of Nash, who paid $7,438.83; Sheriff Wyatt, of Alleghany, who paid $1,283.15; Sheriff Frost, of Currituck, who paid $1,809.99; Sheriff Cato, of Pamlico, who paid $1,380.17.

THE GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.

FOURTH DAY.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

C. D. Rice, from the special committee on memoirs, reported resolutions of respect to the memory of John Dove, deceased Grand Secretary of Virginia, which were adopted by a rising vote.

The usual resolutions of thanks to various railroads for courtesies extended were passed.

A resolution of thanks to the various hotels and boarding houses for courtesies was adopted.

The Committee on Work submitted a minority report which was received and referred to a committee of three.

The meeting of the next session of the Grand Lodge was fixed for Tuesday, December 6th, at 7 o'clock p. m.

On motion, C. A. Cilley, W. R. Cox and W. E. Anderson were appointed trustees to hold property for the orphan asylum.

John Nichols, from the Committee on Jurisprudence, made a report submitting several important cases reviewed, and endorsing the several actions of the Past Grand Master. Also referring to the law affecting dismemberment for the non-payment of dues. Adopted.

C. D. Rice offered a resolution referring the question to the Committee on Jurisprudence, to report at the next session of the Grand Lodge.

Wm. Simpson offered a resolution of thanks to Chas. Noble & Co., of Philadelphia, for the present of a handsome stove for the use of the Grand Lodge Hall. Adopted.

J. W. Cotton offered a resolution instructing the Grand Treasurer to purchase a new set of regalia and jewels.

On Foreign Correspondence—G. B. Harris, E. G. Reade and James Southgate.

On Printing—W. G. Hill, W. E. Anderson and D. W. Bain.

The minutes were read and approved, and the Grand Lodge of North Carolina was closed in ample form.

Meeting of Citizens.

According to notice given by the Mayor a portion of the citizens of Raleigh met last night at Metropolitan Hall.

On motion of Mayor Manly, Jas. D. Royster was called to the chair. N. B. Broughton was requested to act as secretary.

Mayor Manly stated the object of the meeting to be the consideration of the action of the Supreme Court in declaring the debt of the city to be valid and the bonds good.

F. H. Busbee, the city attorney, was called upon. He thought the small number present could hardly be considered a citizens' meeting, and he suggested that the matter be carried to the Aldermen's meeting on Tuesday night next, and a committee be appointed to attend the same.

The suggestion being put into the shape of a motion was adopted.

The chair appointed the following gentlemen as the committee:

First Ward—N. S. Harp and Dr. James McKee.

Second Ward—Col. J. P. H. Russ and M. H. Brown.

Third Ward—A. M. Lewis and B. F. Cheatham.

Fourth Ward—C. B. Root and W. F. Askew.

Fifth Ward—Rev. T. H. Pritchard and Wm. J. Hicks.

The chairman and secretary were added to the committee.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Rev. Father Gross.

This distinguished divine of the Catholic Church, a brother of Bishop Gross and pastor of the church in Wilmington, is expected to arrive in this city to-day, and preach at St. John's (Catholic) Church during mass to-morrow at 11 a. m. Father Gross for a short time was the pastor of the church here, and during his brief pastorate completely won the love of his immediate parishioners, and the esteem of all who became acquainted with him. He is a learned, eloquent and accomplished gentleman, and his sermons never fail to impress and edify his hearers.—Father Gross has but recently returned from an extended European tour, and we are happy to hear that his health has been greatly benefitted thereby.

THE RESOLUTIONS OF PROTEST.

Bledsoe Babbles—The Radicals Endorse Grant In all Particulars.

In the House of Representatives yesterday quite a lively political spat took place, when the resolutions of protest against federal and military interference in South Carolina, and endorsing the course of Wade Hampton, were up for discussion. Mr. Bledsoe, or J. Eaton Bledsoe, as he delights to denominate himself, offered an amendment to the pending resolutions, denouncing the action of the Board of Commissioners of Robeson county in regard to delegates to the late Constitutional Convention. This brought Mr. Rowland, of Robeson, to his feet, who proceeded to administer to J. Eaton a merited and very severe castigation, and such a one that the verbose bantling will not forget while he lives.

Mr. Rowland said that at the recent election the good people of North Carolina, by their adoption of the Constitutional Amendments by over 16,000 majority, had approved the action of the commissioners of his county, and such flings as that made by the gentleman from Wake, (Bledsoe,) came with a very bad grace in the face of these facts. The adoption of the Constitutional Amendment was an endorsement on the part of the people of the State, and his being on the floor of the House was an endorsement at the hands of the people of Robeson county. Mr. Rowland continued for some time in the process of skinning Bledsoe, and when he resumed his seat a hearty round of applause greeted him, while J. Eaton came nearer blushing than he ever did in his life before.

It seems that J. Eaton has appointed himself the leader of the Republican party on the floor of the House, and like a blind snake he strikes at every noise without comprehending what he ought to advocate or oppose from his political standpoint.

His leadership in the fillibuster against these resolutions ended in a ridiculous failure, much to the disgust of his political friends. His utter lack of knowledge of parliamentary law and usages, to say nothing of the rules of the House, led him into making motions that choked him down and defeated the purpose at which he was aiming. Mr. Bledsoe will probably be succeeded in his self-appointed leadership by Ex-Judge Dan. Russell.

There is one thing to be said in behalf of John Eaton—he essayed a very difficult role; he endeavored to make a happy combination of clown and leader and, of course, made a complete failure in both parts.

During this debate Jake Scott, the chronic member from Jones county, said that the majority did not play a generous part by the minority; that Democrats should not endeavor to crush out what little of life there was left in the Republican party in this State; that if let alone they (the Republicans) would die soon enough.

During the discussion of the matter the fact was fully developed that the entire Republican party in the House are in full accord with the Grant administration in every particular.

List of Jurors.

The following persons were drawn at the recent session of the Board of County Commissioners to serve as jurors for the term of the Wake County Superior Court, which convenes on the first day of next month:

FIRST WEEK.

Reddin George, C B Edwards, W A Jones, N G Burns, Samuel Rogers, Willis High, W H Pope, W G Ferrell, Maben Merrett, Edmund Alston, S H Hester, Wm Jinks, N S Mosely, W H Howard, Chas Bynum, F C Robertson, W H Medlin, M F Batchelor, Jno Manuel, M H Ellen, H H Stell, C F Harrison, Jesse Pegram, J M Maynard, C N Hunter, Henry Lockyear, Julius Adams, R P Overton, J R Watkins, L A Page, S W Terrell, Fab. Stephenson, Manly Watkins, B D Cotten, Clem. Alford.

SECOND WEEK.

J J Young, S H Scarborough, Lynn Stephens, W G Briggs, C H Rogers, Toney Burns, S S Turner, Jr, G W B Utley, Reilly Yearby, Dawsey Evans, A J Nowell, Richard Pierce, Jackson Alston, W B Smith, Geo W Norwood, Scott Brown, Peter Young, Robert Smith.

United States Circuit Court.

This Court met yesterday morning, at Metropolitan Hall, at the usual hour, 10 o'clock, Judge Brooks presiding.

The argument of the case of Dolliner, Potter & Co. vs the Bank of New Hanover, took up nearly all the day, and was concluded. The jury found in favor of the defendants. The court is now engaged on the equity docket. The juries will probably be discharged this morning and the court adjourn sine die in the afternoon.

The Vote on the Amendments.

The Supreme Court met yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and was opened by Marshal Wicker. Maj. W. H. Bagley, the clerk of the Supreme Court, had a blank trial made out of all the counties of the State, with "Ratification" and "Rejection" written over blank columns, and the count was gone into at once, by the Chief Justice and Governor. The canvass of the vote occupied three or four hours. The three counties of Cherokee, Graham, and Robeson were thrown out on account of informality in the returns. The returns for Cherokee were signed by the county commissioners, whereas the law specially directs that the returns on this election should have been signed by the sheriffs of the several counties. The returns for Graham and Robeson were not signed at all and the canvassers could not do otherwise than throw out all three of the counties. During the canvass of the vote, quite a number of persons visited the Supreme Court room at different times.

Though the count was finished yesterday, the adding up will not be concluded until to-day. When the aggregate vote is ascertained, and the majority for ratification, the Governor will proceed to issue his proclamation, according to law, declaring the result. We gather in advance of this proclamation, that the majority of ratification is between 13,000 and 14,000, the amendments having run about with Gov. Vance.

Entertainment by the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind.

John Nichols, Esq., the principal of the asylum for the deaf, dumb and the blind, issued invitations yesterday to the members of the General Assembly and others, to attend a concert and exhibition given last night by the pupils of the institution named. The chapel was crowded and the entertainment was a delightful one. The blind pupils sang for the crowd, and showed good voices and careful training. Little Marsey, the blind boy from Gaston county sang some comic songs which were rapturously applauded. The blind also read the bible of raised letters, and otherwise gave evidence of the course of instruction which they pursue.

The mutes worked problems on the black-board, went through an amusing pantomines and otherwise contributed very much to the pleasure of the evening. The entertainment was truly a pleasing one and the crowd left in great good humor, and with many compliments to Mr. Nichols and his assistants, as well as to the unfortunate children of the State who are receiving the benefits of this great charity.

Death of a Veteran.

We understand that George Dill, Esq., of Beaufort, Carteret county, died very suddenly at his residence on Monday last. Mr. Dill was a soldier in the war of 1812, and for many years prior to the civil war sheriff of his county. He was an intelligent and amiable gentleman, whose death will be felt and lamented by a large circle of friends. He closed his existence at the ripe age of 84 years. Only four veterans of the war of 1812 now remain in Carteret county, as living links in that chain binding the eighteenth to the nineteenth century; viz: John Sabiston, Sr., James Ward, Isaac Wade, and Asa Willis, all of whom are highly respectable citizens.

These facts we gather from Mr. Gefroy, the representative from Carteret, who enjoyed the personal friedship of the deceased, and he retains the respect and confidence of the surviving veterans of the "second war of independence." Mr. G. considers it a great honor that he received the support of these patriots in the late election.

Personal.

L. W. Humphrey, who is soon to be kicked down and out of the Presidency of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, was in the city yesterday.

Cyrus P. Mendenhall, Esq., of Greensboro, and Rev. J. S. Michueux, editor of the Central Protestant, Greensboro, are at the Yarborough House.

Senator Justice, of Rutherford, was among the legislators who left yesterday. During his absence he will visit Wilmington, and other points, in the interest of the railroad in which his people are so much concerned—the Carolina Central.

Dr. Pride Jones and Mr. Duncan Cameron, of Orange, are at the Yarborough House.

Coming to the Inauguration.

The Oxford Fire Company, at a meeting held last Tuesday night, unanimously agreed to come to Raleigh to Vance's inauguration. The Torchlight says: "A more gallant band of simon pure Democrats will not visit the City of Oaks on that day.

THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

THE boot has slipped from Hayes' leg to Tilden's.

THE Richmond Enquirer, one of the best dailies of the South, has been revived after a temporary suspension. It is as newsy and as ably edited as ever.

THE burning of the Brooklyn theatre was the most horrible occurrence of the kind ever known to this country. Nearly three hundred lives were lost.

THE cry went out, "hold Robeson, and save the State!" Robeson was held, and the State was saved. Now, there is a cry heard on every breeze: "Hold Oregon, and save the Nation!"

THERE was a lively debate in the House yesterday, over Mr. Parrish's resolution condemning Federal interference with State elections.—These ringing resolutions thoroughly expressed the North Carolina feeling on the subject.

THE Legislature has taken steps to secure a house in this city for the Governor. A large, handsome mansion should be furnished—one that would comfort with the dignity of the exalted office of its distinguished occupant.

IT was Senator Caho, and not Senator Coke, who introduced the bill to aid the Oxford Orphan Asylum.—Mr. Caho is taking a warm interest in this subject, and we hope for the good of the orphans, that the Legislature may adopt his views, and extend the aid asked.

THE establishment of a Democratic journal at Washington indicates that somebody has faith in the election of Tilden. Mr. Montgomery Blair is announced as the editor of this intended organ of the Tilden administration. Mr. Blair is one of the ablest of American journalists and Statesmen.

THE Republicans are now where the Democrats wanted them—figuratively speaking—"between the devil and the deep sea." If it is possible to go behind the Oregon Governor's certificate in the Crodnin case, the Democrats can then go behind the Governor's certificates in the three States of Florida, Louisiana and South Carolina.

GOV. GROVER telegraphs the New York Herald that in granting certificates to electors in Oregon, he followed precedents, obeyed the laws, and enforced the constitutional mandates to the extent of his power. If the President of the Senate is equally obedient to law, Tilden's election is assured beyond a doubt.

THE Grand Lodge of Masons adjourned on yesterday, to meet again a year hence. The attendance was full, and all the proceedings of the most harmonious and pleasing nature. The Oxford Orphan Asylum, that noble monument of Masonic charity, was provided for, the sum of $2,000 being appropriated for its support during the ensuing twelve months. H. H. Munsen, Esq., of Wilmington, was chosen Grand Master. The installation of officers took place Thursday night. The services are said to have been conducted with singularly imposing dignity by Past Grand Master Edwin G. Reade. The Masonic Journal, conducted by Rev. E. A. Wilson, was highly commended by the Grand Master, and heartily endorsed by the Grand Lodge—a well-deserved tribute. Altogether, this annual meeting will be long remembered by those who participated in its mysteries, as one of the most interesting and pleasing on record.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END

Wednesday's work went a long way towards setting the vexed Presidential problem. So far as the States, acting in their individual sovereign capacities, are concerned, the matter is settled. The several Governors and canvassing boards have discharged the duties imposed upon them; the electoral colleges have performed their functions; and the second grand act in the election of a President is concluded.

The result, though not entirely satisfactory, must inspire Democrats everywhere with fresh confidence in the final and peaceful triumphs of Mr. Tilden. We now know that when the certificates shall be opened by the President of the Senate, and the votes counted, the vote of the following States will be counted for Tilden, without objection on the part of the Republicans, to-wit: Alabama 10, Arkansas 6, Connecticutt 6, Delaware 3, Georgia 11, Indiana 15, Kentucky 12, Maryland 8, Mississippi 8, Missouri 15, New Jersey 9, New York 35, North Carolina 10, Tennessee 12, Texas 8, Virginia 11, and West Virginia 5; making a total of 184 votes

The following States are equally certain for Mr. Hayes, to wit: California 6, Colorado 3, Illinois 21, Iowa 11, Kansas 5, Maine 7, Massachusetts 13, Michigan 11, Minnesota 5, Nebraska 3, Nevada 3, New Hampshire 5, Ohio 22, Oregon 2, Pennsylvania 29, Rhode Island 4, Vermont 5, Wisconsin 10; making a total of 165 votes.

The States which will be disputed, are Florida 4, Louisiana 8, Oregon 1, South Carolina 7; making a total of 20 votes, all of which Mr. Hayes must receive in order to secure the majority required by the Constitution of the United States, whereas Mr. Tilden will be elected if he can but get a single one of this disputed number.

When Florida is reached in the count, two sets of certificates will be found—one, that of the Republican electors, bearing upon its face all the evidencies of legality, and stamped with the seal of the State; the other, that of the Democratic electors, bearing upon its face none of the evidences of legality, and having only the weight of a minority protest. Unless between now and the middle of February, Congress can succeed in reversing this result, Florida must inevitably be counted for Mr. Hayes. There is no remedy here unless Congress strikes at the roots of the matter, by determining that the certificates issued to the Republican electors were based upon a fraudulent count of the votes cast in the State. Attorney-General Cocke, the only Democratic member of the Florida Returning Board, is confident that this can be shown.

When Louisiana is reached the count, two sets of certificates will be found. Two electoral colleges met in New Orleans on Wednesday. The eight Democratic electors held certificates from McEnery, who claims to be Governor of the State. The eight Republican electors held certificates from Kellogg, the Governor de facto of Louisiana. This conflict opens up the whole Louisiana election; and the only hope to be entertained by the Democrats on this score is that Congress may upset the work of the Returning Board, in time for the count at Washington. We should be sorry to believe that the fate of the election depended upon this hope.

The Louisiana case presents another and distinct phase. Two of the Hayes electors were Federal office-holders. The Constitution of the United States, Article 11, Section 2, declares, that "no Senator or Representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector." Under this clause of the Constitution it is claimed that these two electors are ineligible. The question is raised, is an office-holder ineligible, who resigns his office between the day of election and the date of the certificate of his appointment? Other legal questions will be developed in Congress; and a broad field of debate, of difficulty, and of danger, opened.

The two certificates from South Carolina will bring up complications and variances similar to those springing from the Louisiana and Florida elections. One result will probably attend all three of these States. If the work of the returning board in one of the States can be undone, it is almost certain that the wicked work of the others can be upset. To accomplish these desirable ends, Congressional committees have been appointed; and the investigations will begin at once.

When Oregon is reached, a pandora box of difficulties and dangers will fly open. It is undisputed that Oregon's popular vote was cast for Hayes. Yet, by the action of the Governor of Oregon, one of the three votes to which that State is entitled, has been cast for Tilden. One of the Hayes electors was a post-master; and as he was ineligible under the clause of the constitution above quoted, Governor Grover refused to issue him the certificate of election, but gave it to his Democratic competitor. There is a somewhat similar case from Vermont; but it lacks the element of legality which gives that from Oregon so much importance—the brood of State.

This sketch of t[illegible] sents an outline of the serious difficulties ahead of us, in the final settlement of this question. Mr. Tilden has received a popular majority of a half million of votes, and 185 legal and constitutional votes in the Electoral College. He begins the contest in Congress with this solid advantage; whether when the contest ends on the 4th of March, Mr. Tilden will still hold this constitutional majority, and be inaugurated President of the United States, is yet an open question; and in its solution is involved the peace of the country and the preservation of constitutional liberty.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

It will be remembered that soon after the organization of the Radical House in Columbia, the official returns of the State election were delivered to Speaker Mackey, who counted the votes and announced that Gov. Chamberlain had received a majority. Subsequently the legal quorum was transferred to the Democratic House. The returns were demanded of the Secretary of State, by Speaker Wallace; and his demand has since been reinforced by a mandamus from the Supreme Court. These proceedings were pending at last accounts; and we can only guess at the probable result.

Should the Democratic House get possession of the returns, it is quite certain that their official count will show Hampton elected Governor of the State. The original returns from the various counties undoubtedly give Hampton a clear majority of more than a thousand votes.

In the meantime, Chamberlain has been inaugurated Governor. He was sworn in by a probate judge on Thursday, and with little ceremony inducted into office. In a short time, the probabilities are that the Democrats will inaugurate Hampton. Then comes on a direct conflict of authority.

In such a contingency, he would win who gets the support of Grant. It is understood in Washington, that the President intends to maintain the carpet-baggers in South Carolina no longer; that he cannot now be induced to favor either party; and that he intends to recognize Wade Hampton as Governor, if he should be declared elected by a legislature bearing and unquestionable quorum.

If this be in fact the attitude of Grant toward South Carolina, we may indulge in the hope that Hampton will yet be Governor of the State, notwithstanding the inauguration of Chamberlain.

THE New York Herald says "the situation begins to brighten." It does not say whether for Hayes or for Tilden.

THE DAILY NEWS.

SATURDAY.....DECEMBER 8, 1876.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the best weekly paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

NORTH CAROLINA.

One night last week the store house of H. M. D. McCauley, of Chapel Hill, was broken open and about $150 of specie stolen therefrom.

The Boyd Star Company played Ingomar a few nights ago in Charlotte for the benefit of the Hornet's Nest Riflemen, and last night Miss Florence Richmond was given a benefit.

The Observer says that a short time ago Moses Howard, a colored Democrat living in Charlotte, was caught in the dark and beaten almost to death by a mob of unknown negroes. Not content with this, last Tuesday night they hitched his horse upon the track of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, near the oldfair grounds and the animal which was blind, was killed by the train. Howard's loss is about $30.

According to the Sun when a man went to the telegraph office in Concord late the other night and wanted to telegraph to Charlotte and Salisbury, the operator told him their offices were closed. Whereupon he asked the operator "if he could not send the dispatch then, so that the operator would get it when they opened the office in the morning." Telegraphing is quick work but this was rather pushing things.

The Randelph Regulator says that Wm. Lewis, of that section, aged 85 years, has been deaf for a number of years. He voted four years ago and declared it was his last vote. He was induced to go to the election this year; he voted the Democratic ticket. He went home from the election, and after being there about two hours, he heard his clock strike, an occurrence that had not happened in 10 years. He has been able ever since to carry on an ordinary conversation with his neighbors and friends. This is a strange incident, but is vouched for by good authority.

The Charlotte Observer states that a number of people from Western Massachusetts are preparing to plant a colony in this State, and that the first installment of colonists, numbering 12 families, will start the first week in December. The present intention of the managers is to settle in Burke county, directly on the line of the Western North Carolina Railroad, and to build up a northern village about seven miles east of Morganton. The colony has the refusal of a tract of 24 000 acres of which 19,000 acres are of very heavy white pine timber at $2 50 an acre. It is their intention to clear up a part of the forest and engage both in miscellaneous farming and lumbering.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The coming of a Congressional Committee induced General Ruger to withdraw his troops from the State House at Columbia, S. C.

Hayes is said to have some "misgivings" concerning the election. Of course those solemn words of Ulysses Simpson Grant are burned upon his conscience. Hayes droops whenever he recalls that Grant has said: "No man worthy of the office of President should be willing to hold it if counted in or placed there by fraud."

The Tammany Society of New York has passed resolutions strongly condemning the use of troops in the South, and declaring that the course pursued by the Returning Board in Louisiana in arbitrarily disfranchising whole parishes, and preparing in secrecy to declare the result of the election to be in accordance with their own particular views, merits the condemnation of every just and high-minded citizen who values the liberty of his country above fidelity to his party.

The Hayes majority in Louisiana was secured by the Republican Canvassing Board by throwing out the parish of Grant entire and all the heavy Democratic polls in the parishes of Catahoula, Ouachita, East Feliciana, West Feliciana, Claiborne, Livingston, Sabine, De Soto, Tangipahoa Morehouse, Richland, Lafayette, East Baton Rouge, Winn, Washington, Franklin and Lafourche. The large majority for Hayes is made by the necessities arising from Chandler's requisition to return four members of Congress for Louisiana. Elam and Robertson, with majorities of 900 and 6,000 were accordingly counted out.

American Genius. Moody and Sankey.

The great revivalists, Messrs. Moody and Sankey, who electrified staid old England with their eloquence and enthusiasm, are fair samples of American genius. Springing from among the common people, their sympathies are alive to the wants of the whole people, and herein lies the secret of their great success. Those who seek to be popular must study and be familiar with the wants of the masses, and prove loyal thereto. To this fact we may trace the grand success in business, as well as in religious undertakings, which many Americans have achieved. Strikingly illustrative of these suggestions is that great establishment, located at Buffalo, N. Y., and known as the World's Dispensary,!—a most appropriate name, indeed, for that vast institution, within whose walls are manufactured remedies which are in demand in every quarter of the globe, and at which a corps of distinguished physicians and surgeons, under the personal direction of Dr. Pierce, are constantly administering to the needs of thousands of sufferers everywhere, and whose success in the treatment of all forms of chronic ailments has become so well known that there is scarcely a hamlet in the land in which his name is familiar. Its proprietor, says the Herald and Torchlight, of Detroit, "is a man of the people, writes for them, and to them tenders his eminent professional services." His advertisements are earnest exhortations. Like the great revivalists, his enthusiasm is multiplied by the unparalleled success of his enterprise, as well as by the efficacy of his remedies in curing disease. The people believe in him and his remedies, because, as the New York Tribune says "he sympathizes with them in all their afflictions, efforts, and attainments." Hence, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to-day more largely employed as a blood and liver medicine, and also as a cough remedy, than any other remedial agent in the world. His favorite Prescription, he does not recommend as a "cure all," as is so often done by compounders of worthless, humbug nostrums, but for all diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women it has proved itself so much of a specific that it now enjoys great popularity and universal confidence. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, "scarcely larger than mustard seed," have proved so agreeable and reliable as a cathartic that they are rapidly taking the place of the large nauseous pills heretofore so much in use; while his Compound Extract of Smart-Weed is a favorite remedy for Colic, Cramps, Summer-complaint, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera and Cholera Morbus, and also as a liniment. Of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, little may be said, as they are known everywhere as the greatest specifics for Catarrh and "cold in the head," ever given to the public. And besides this measure of success, Dr. Pierce seems likely to achieve as great renown as an author as he has a physician. His COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of about 900 pages, which he sells at the unparalleled low price of $1.50, has already been sold to the extent of exhausting two editions amounting to forty thousand copies. The secret of Dr. Pierce's success, as well as that of the great revivalists, and scores of other Americans, who by their genius have advanced step by step from obscurity to affluence and distinction, consists in treating the people with consideration, sympathy, candor, and honesty. No man, who hopes to attain either wealth or distinction, can afford to deal unfairly with the world or be indifferent to the wants and best interests of humanity.

NOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

Unimportant Congressional Proceedings--A Noisy Republican Caucus--Everything Quiet--The Proposition of the House Judiciary Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—In the Senate, on motion of Mr. Morton, it was ordered that additional members to the Committee on Privileges and Elections be appointed to aid in discharging the duties imposed by the resolution of Mr. Edmunds, requiring an investigation into the late elections

HOUSE.—Only routine business. No important action expected until the return of the committees from the South.

The Republicans of the Senate canvassed an hour and a half this morning. They were noisy, but a Senator says, cheerful and harmonious. If any action was taken it has not transpired.

It is undecided whether sub-committees of the Committee on Privileges and Elections will visit the States or sit here.

The general political feeling finds no boisterous expression.

The Judiciary Committee of the House met and agreed to report McCreary's resolution, to appoint a committee of five from the House to act with a similar committee from the Senate, with the object of referring the canvass of the votes of the Electoral College to some tribunal whose action will be final.

Presidential Pools Off--Morrisey Hath Spoken It--What Governor Grover Says--He Acted According to Precedent and Law.

Governor Grover, of Oregon, telegraphs the New York Herald, commencing as follows: "At your request I give you some of the grounds of my action in granting certificates to electors in Oregon." The Governor states at length that he has followed precedent, obeyed the laws and enforced the constitutional mandate to the extent of his power.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Unimportant Proceedings in the House and an All Day's Debate the Senate on a Technicality.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—HOUSE.—The pension appropriation bill passed.

A resolution offered by Mr. Wood, of New York, calling on the President for copies of the orders and instructions sent to him, and of reports received from military or civil officers in the States of Georgia, Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina, since August last, was adopted.

Adjourned till Monday.

SENATE—Mr. Edmunds, of Vermont moved to take up the joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States in regard to the count of the electoral vote by the Supreme Court.

Mr. Merrimon, of North Carolina, objected and read the 21st joint rule providing that the unfinished business left over from one sesion shall not be taken up for action until after the lapse of six days from the beginning of the subsequent session. He made the point of order that under the rule the joint resolution could not be considered now.

The Chair, Mr Ferry, overruled the point of order and announced that the joint rules were not in force. Besides, this subject was covered by the Senate rule, No. 52, which has been directed to be read. It provides that at the commencement of a second session business shall be resumed and proceeded with as if no adjournment had taken place.

Mr. Merrimon appealed from the decision of the chair and said he had no objection to taking up this joint resolution, if it could be done properly, but if the twenty-first joint rule was in force, as he believed it was, the resolution could not be taken up. He thougnt that the rule contained a very wholesome provision. Mr. Merrimon then argued that the joint rules were in force and it was not competent for the Senate to abolish them without the concurrence of the House of Representatives. Neither House could withdraw its assent to the rules without the concurrence of the other. The debate continued all day, and was of a technical character, only incidental allusion being made bearing on the question of the electoral votes. A vote was finally reached. The question being on the appeal of Mr. Merrimon from the decision of the chair, the decision was sustained, yeas 50; nays 4, as follows—Maxey, Merrimon, Windom and Wright. So there are no joint rules.

Adjourned until Monday.

FOREIGN.

The French Cabinet--A Preliminary Meeting--More Troops for Cuba--England Accepts the American Interpretation of the Extradition Treaty.

PARIS, Dec. 8.—At the cabinet council McMahon urged the ministers to retain their portfolios. They agreed to await full information as to the disposition of the parlimentary groupes.

LONDON, Dec. 8—A Reuter telegram from Constantinople says that an agreement between the powers does not seem impossible.

HAVANA, Dec. 8.—A Spanish war ship has arrived with 1,000 troops.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The News states in an official form that England has accepted the American interpretation of the extradition treaty.

A meeting preliminary to the conference will be held daily at Constantinople for about a week.

WASHINGTON.

The New York Herald--The Rads Have Been Whipped on Their Ground--Cabinet Meeting--Both Sides Saluting--A Warning to Celebrating Republicans--The Democratic Caucus Committee.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Under the caption of "The Oregon Electors—A Checkmate and a Surprise," the New York Herald prints a column and a half of editorial concluding: "By this astute manœuvre the supporters of Mr. Tilden have captured the stronghold of the enemy, and can turn his own batteries against him. If one House alone cannot revise the certificates which bear the signature of the Governor and the seal of the State, the Democrats are strongly intrenched on the ground selected by their adversaries. The rage of the Republicans at being thus hoisted by their own petard, is as amusing as it is natural."

There was a full cabinet meeting to day.

When the Republicans had fired 110 guns last night, an unfortunate man was fatally injured by the premature discharge, and the firing ceased.

To-night the Democrats have fired 204 guns.

The committee of the Democratic caucus, ordered last night, consists of Messrs. Hewitt, of New York; Payne, of Ohio; Wood, of New York; Randall, of Pennsylvania; Sparks, of Illinois; Halmon, of Indiana; Warren, of Massachusetts; Stephens, of Georgia; Watterson, of Kentucky; and the chairman of the caucus, Col. Lamar, of Mississippi.

Arrival of the Congressional Committee in Columbia--The Democratic House at Work--The Withdrawal of the Military Demanded--Steps Towards the Impeachment of Chamberlain for Treason.

COLUMBIA, Dec 8.—The Congressional Committee arrived here late last night. Many met in the morning, organized and soon after drove to the State House in carriages. The weather cloudy and raining.

Mackey House and Senate in session. Action unimportant.

The Committee appointed by the Democratic House yesterday are now in the discharge of its mission, which was to call upon the officer commanding the United States troops at the State House and inform him that the House was legally constituted, ask the withdrawal of troops from that building, and if refused to demand by what authority troops are retained there. The Democratic House also instructed the Judiciary Committee to employ counsel and proceed against D. W. Chamberlain for reasonable acts in usurping the government of the State and also directed committee to ascertain and report what counties are not represented in the House.

Cotton Broker's Circular.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 8.—The circular of the Cotton Broker's Association reviewing the week ending last night says: Cotton was in less request the early part of the week, and prices gave away about one-eighth, the demand on Wednesday improved, and the market on Thursday was active with a large business, and the previous Thursday's quotations were nearly resumed. American was depressed at the commencement of the week, and prices declined one-eighth, but it has since become active, and one-sixteenth of the decline has been recovered. Sea Island has been highest, and prices are unchanged. Transactions in futures were comparatively limited at lower rates until Thursday.

LOCAL MATTERS.

——Beastly weather this.

——Church notices to-day.

——Trying so hard to rain.

——The majority of the Masons got off home yesterday, the Grand Lodge having adjourned.

——"He's wussener returning board," is a favorite term of reproach among the bloods of this city.

——A crowd of Massachusetts ladies and gentlemen are at the Yarborough House, en route to Florida to spend the winter.

——Deputy Sheriff and Jailer Magnin has had two coal stoves placed in the jail for the comfort of the prisoners. Very proper.

——Under a special dispensation from the Grand Lodge Wm. G. Hill Lodge of this city will have an election of officers at its meeting Monday night.

——The Holy Communion will be celebrated at the Church of the Good Shepherd to-morrow, and every Sunday during Advent, at 7:30 o'clock a. m.

——We are indebted to Hon. Jo. J. Davis, the popular and capable member of Congress from this district, for copies of the Congressional Record already received.

——Messrs. J. C. S. Lumsden, Samuel Merrill and G. T. Strong have been appointed an additional committee to solicit funds for the grand inaugural demonstration.

——If the members continue leaving for the next day or two as rapidly as they have for three days past there won't be enough of them left by Tuesday to get up an interesting debate on a gournment.

——Beautiful and rosy apples sit in front of many Fayetteville street fancy stores, a constant trial to the christian virtue of the numerous small boys who go to and fro in the city and up and down in it.

——The last issue of the Wadesboro Herald contains a highly interesting and readable letter written from this city by its Senator-editor, Col. E. R. Liles. He has a good deal to say of Raleigh its beauty, business and general attractiveness, as well as something of the Legislature and its proceedings.

"The boys" who board at the Yarborough House have a good rule to go by: If in going into supper he can plumb the strip of carpet from one end of the dining room to the other it is decided safe for him to go calling. If he runs off the track the referees assume judicial functions and carry him off to bed.

The Marriage of Mr. Johnson and Miss Wilson.

Mr. Chas. E. Johnson, of this city, who was married in Charlotte Thursday night to Miss Mary E. Wilson, arrived home yesterday afternoon, bringing his bride with him. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. W. Miller, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Charlotte.

After giving an account of the marriage and paying a warm and eminently deserved tribute to the many shining qualities of the bride, the Charlotte Observer goes on to say:

"In going to her new home in Raleigh she carries with her the best and sincerest wishes of a large circle of relatives and friends; and we but echo their sentiments when we express the hope that the same bow of promise that stood over the young couple when they exchanged their marital vows may remain with them and guard over them through the journey of life."

W. W. Phifer, Miss Lou. Allison;
B. F. Wilson, Miss Sallie Young;
P. F. Pescud, Miss Lou. Young;
J. F. Orr, Miss Maggie Morehead;
I. Johnson, Miss Sallie Erwin;
E. H. Lee, Miss Minnie Phifer;
J. L. Phifer, Miss Sallie Witherspoon;
Willie Jones, Miss Mamie Phifer.

Meeting of Colored Methodist Conference.

The ninth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church convened in St. Paul A.M.E Church, in this city, Bishop J. M. Brown, D. D., presiding.

Conference opened with singing.

Rev. G. W. Brodie addressed the throne of grace and read the 33d chapter of Deuteronomy, after which the regular business of the Conference was entered upon.

Bishop J. M. Brown is the Presiding Bishop of the second district, which is composed of the following Conferences: Baltimore, Virginia, North and Carolina South, the membership reaching over 50,000. There are at least three theological institutions in the connection, one located in South Carolina, one in Florida and the principal one, Wilberforce, in Xenia, Ohio, valued at $100,000; also their book concern publishing house and printing press. Their church paper is worth from $20,000 to $25,000. Independent of these their church property is worth, and is actually valued at $3,000,000; the whole membership 300,000.

Attention of the Legislature is called to the Exchange Hotel lot, on Hillsboro street, as a suitable place for the Governor's Mansion.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of WILLIE COLEY BILLINGS will take place this (Saturday) afternoon at four o'clock, from the Presbyterian Church. The friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

At 31 Fayetteville street, at all hours, night or day, you can get the best hot or cold drinks, plain or fancy, oysters, meals of all kinds, and anything to make comfortable the inner man.

Lumsden has just received another lot of "Acorn Cook Stoves," given up by all who have used them as being the best in the market—took the premium at our last two State Fairs—this over all others—A large lot of stoves of all kinds and sizes—at bottom prices, at Lumsden's Silver Medal City Stove Store.

Go to D. T. Johnson's No. 5 Hargett street, for choice groceries of all kinds. Baltimore family flour (equal to Patapsco) at $9.00; eggs, 20 cents; butter, 35 cents; meal, 75 cents; meats of all kinds at lowest prices. Heavy goods delivered in any part of the city free of charge.
